

John DeHardt
Managing Principal

Real Estate Specialty

As Managing Principal of the company, Mr. DeHardt has overall responsibility for all functions performed by the company, including Development, Brokerage, Property Management, and Construction. Kessinger/Hunter & Company is the largest full service commercial real estate firm in Kansas City, Missouri. The company operates over 23,000,000 square feet of office, industrial, and retail properties in 23 states.

Career History

Mr. DeHardt joined the company in 1981 as Director of Property Management. During his tenure, Mr. DeHardt has contributed greatly to the company's growth from a staff of fifteen handling 1,300,000 square feet, to over 200 employees operating over 200 projects totaling over 23 million square feet.

Mr. DeHardt is the Managing Partner of 20 real estate partnerships owning 3,000,000 square feet of primarily industrial properties in eight states including Missouri, Kansas, California, Florida, and Texas.

Education

B.S. in Economics and Accounting, Rockhurst College, Kansas City, Missouri