

Charles H. Hunter
Co-Chairman

Chuck specializes in industrial sales and leasing and development, and is a partner in many transactions, as well as an active participant in the overall management of the firm.

After earning his degree in Finance from the University of Arizona, Chuck joined Kessinger/Hunter & Company, Inc. in 1966, when the company was known as John A. Moore & Company. It became known as Kessinger/Hunter & Company, Inc. in 1982.

Chuck has developed over 7,000,000 square feet of industrial space. This full service firm has management responsibility for over 23,000,000 square feet of commercial space in 23 states and maintains a fully staffed investment sales group, as well as, a sales and leasing department. Chuck has served as a director of Boatmen's First National Bank and the Board of the Pride of Kansas City Foundation. Currently, he is a director of the Bank of Blue Valley, in addition to serving on the Board of the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum.